Doreen, Although we haven't seen very much of each other this year, we have had a lot of fun.
I sure hope you're the best of luck in every thing - especially Bobi.
I would've loved spending the whole summer in Las Vegas. But any way you can write me. I hope you're not too "goofy" like we did at Holy you in the May procession (time to up!) sick

I was hoping we could have to go away.
This summer we will see you some time.
But maybe we will see you some time.
Don't go off to school

I hope that I have as much

Willie's summer and don't miss him. You're a great little

Love in kisses, Gathy.

DEDICATION

To the commission of 1953-54 and all the commissions that served before it, this Copa de Oro is gratefully dedicated.

Through the efforts of the commissioners, we as a student body have learned both the principles and practices of democracy. We have learned the importance of the individual citizen. We have learned that it is not enough simply to reap benefits that accrue under such a government, but that each must share responsibility in its continuance and preservation.

We have been afforded the opportunity to observe at close range and participate in the functions of a body of our elected representatives who act on suggestions which come directly from the people.

We are proud of our heritage of freedom. We are proud and yet humbled by the knowledge that one day our hands will guide America, as do those of our parents today. We are aware of the responsibilities which exist in conjunction with these privileges, and we will endeavor to fulfill these responsibilities in such a way that succeeding generations of Americans will be as proud of their forefathers as we have been of ours.

In recognition of the service, guidance, and inspiration given us by the 1953-54 commission of South Pasadena High School, the 1954 Copa de Oro is dedicated.

ADMINISTRATORS

South Pasadena High School is exceptionally proud of the fine leadership of the administrators and counselors this year. A school is only as successful as those who lead it, and we are indeed fortunate in having such capable administrative leaders.

Mr. Laurence Harper, superintendent of the South Pasadena city schools, directs the general policy of our school, collaborating with our principal, Dr. Elmer J. Erickson. Dr. Erickson is not only concerned with the immediate administrative matters of the school, but is also engaged in promoting good public relations with our community.

Mr. Forrest Fouts, vice-principal, came to South Pasadena from Fredonia, Kansas, where he was principal of a school for three years.

The dean of girls, Miss Margaret Lauer, is assisted by Mrs. Lora George, who also teaches English. Mr. George C. Jordan is serving as boys' counselor. Each year the counselors supervise the Iowa Testing Program, covering the entire student body.

Mr. Fouts and Miss Lauer head the Boys' and Girls' Leagues, respectively.

Besides being engaged in the many responsibilities concerned with the programming and graduation preparations, Miss Lauer and Mr. Jordan organized College Day, when students had the opportunity to listen to the representatives of various colleges. On Career Day, in March, the students learned about their chosen vocations from visiting speakers.

Espee is indebted to the administration for the wonderfully successful year of 1953-54.

FACULTY

Our South Pasadena faculty club is one of the most active teachers' associations in Southern California. Not only do they meet once a month for business meetings, but they also plan various activities throughout the year.

Miss Marian Warren, U.S. history and government teacher, is heading the Faculty Club this year as president; senior literature and composition instructor, Miss Minnie Ruth Dexter, is aiding Miss Warren as vice-president of the Faculty Club. Mr. Donald Phippin, in charge of the print shop, is serving this year as treasurer, and Miss Helen Grafen, working with Miss Vivian Atherton as the girls' gym instructor, is secretary.

In charge of social events, which are planned for each month throughout the year, is Mrs. Annabelle Erickson. Mrs. Doris Severtson is heading the committee this year for the planning of the faculty meetings, which are held once a month for business matters. Miss Helen Reese, courtesy chairman, sees that visitors to our school are to feel that they are always welcome. The salary committee is under the direction of Mr. James Carpenter, and Miss Helen Burr is serving as the chairman of the professional committee.

The social events planned for each month are attended either by the South Pasadena High School Faculty Club or the entire South Pasadena School District Association, which includes all faculties. In September a swimming party, which was immensely enjoyed by all, was held at Mr. Wayne Steimle's house, and in October a steak barbeque held in the Arroyo Seco Park was the center of much fun. A progressive Christmas dinner and party was acclaimed a perfect way of celebrating the Christmas holidays.

As well as participating together in activities as a club, the faculty members are kept very busy fulfilling their duties and responsibilities as teachers. South Pasadena is proud to welcome the many members of the faculty new to the teaching staff this year.

Taking the place of Mr. Richard O. Wilson as speech and dramatics coach is Mr. Robert Tewksbury. Mrs. May Larsen is replacing Miss Ruth Richardson in the English department, and teaching both English and Latin is Mr. David Flathers, who replaces Mrs. Marie Ohlsen.

Taking over the chemistry classes for Mr. J. Douglas Bookhout is Mr. Robert D. Fellman.

Mr. H. F. Edgar replaces Mr. Joseph Oeltman in the machine shop, and Mr. James Faul has accepted the coaching duties of Mr. Garland Lewis, who left South Pasadena to become head coach at the newly formed San Marino High School. Mr. Harold Hartsough, commercial teacher, is filling the position left by Mr. Donald Sandlin.

Now serving as vice-principal is Mr. Forrest Fouts, who assumes the position vacated by Mr. James Carpenter when he retired from the administration post to resume teaching responsibilities.

Mrs. Lora George rejoined the faculty after a year's absence to take over the counseling duties relinquished by Miss Margaret Lauer, who replaces Miss Harriet Hardy as the dean of girls.

South Pasadena offers a vote of thanks for the guidance given by the faculty of 1953-54.

COMMISSIONERS

A high school can be only as strong as its leaders. One reason for South Pasadena High School's success and fine reputation this year is that it was led by an outstanding group of students, the 1953-54 commission. These leaders worked together well, serving the school with unfailing devotion and accomplishing many worthwhile things.

Under the guidance of the commission, Associated Studentbody cards were sold in the opening weeks of school. The commission sponsored Color Day, celebrating the year's first league football game on October 16. Color Day consisted of a pep rally and a parade up Fair Oaks Avenue. On October 17, the commission put on the "Queen's Ball," in honor of the football queen, Joanne Martin, and her princesses, Jeannie Dwyer and Karen Floaten, at the Gold Room in the Pasadena Civic.

Four members of the commission represented the school at each of the Foothill League Forum meetings. At the Forum, where friendly relations are established with other schools competing in our league, one of the projects was to present the All-League Dance on January 30.

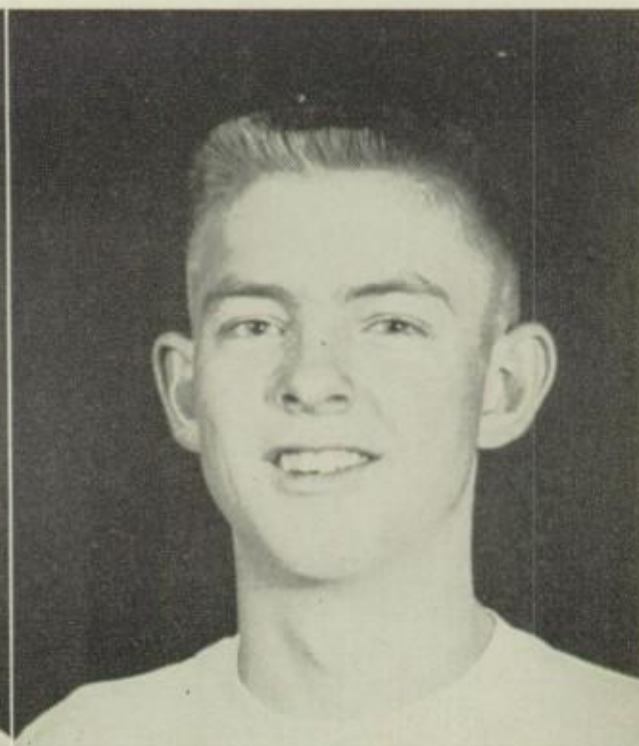

The commission bedecked the school for the Christmas season by stringing Christmas letters across the front lawn and arranging a scene on the roof of the business building. In the spring they conducted A.S.B. elections. All during the year this governing body attended to suggestions which students had deposited in the commissioners' box. By talking with Dr. E. J. Erickson and the faculty, the commission arranged that the confusing double lunch period of the first semester be changed to a more satisfactory single lunch period in the second semester.

The commission is made up of the nine commissioners and the presidents of the three classes, Bengals, the Pep Association, and of Legislative Council. Commissioner-General Ron Wheatcroft led the assemblies and presided over the commission meetings. Joan Becker, commissioner of activities, and Fred Byers, finance, ably managed the A.S.B. sales by selling student body cards to over 85 percent of the students. Joanie also provided an enjoyable combination of interesting, entertaining, and educational assemblies this year. As commissioner of publicity, Linda Fisher made posters to place around campus advertising coming events. She also distributed articles and pictures weekly to outside newspapers telling of Espee activities.

Jere Patten, commissioner of correspondence, kept accurate minutes of the commission meetings. Ron Phillips, commissioner of athletics, ordered letters for the lettermen and recorded scores of all sports events, announcing them each Friday in assembly. Dave Ericson, interior, worked with the campus committees in waging a successful campaign for a clean campus. Kate Riemer and Tony French, commissioners of girls and boys, led the Girls' and Boys' Leagues in a wonderful year.

A great deal of praise and appreciation is due the 1953-54 commission for their help in keeping up South Pasadena's Tiger spirit and traditions in the midst of the changes in buildings and temporary difficulties.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

KATE RIEMER
Commissioner of Girls

OFFICERS. STANDING: Betsy Brigham, Marie Van Pelt. KNEELING: Cynthia Holloman, Kate Riemer.

Despite limited school facilities, the South Pasadena Girls' League enjoyed a highly successful year under the leadership of Kate Riemer, president, and Miss Margaret Lauer, adviser.

New girls enjoyed a fashion show with models from the junior and senior classes, which was a feature of the New Girls' party, given under the supervision of Carol Moore.

"Evening in Paris" was the theme of the Girls' League dance, one of the most successful of the year. Through the combined efforts of the junior-sophomore and senior career committees, led by Rosalie Bell and Margo Lovendale, respectively, the Girls' League inaugurated College Day, when representatives from leading colleges and universities were heard. The program was repeated in the evening for the parents. Also sponsored by the League was the traditional Career Day in March, when students were able to judge for themselves the opportunities offered by various careers.

The annual Girls' League calendar design contest was won this year by Joan McAvoy and Paula Holland. The calendar sale, under the direction of Judy Jones, ways and means chairman, was most successful.

Mothers' Teas, held in the administration building, were supervised by the class representatives, Sue Gray, senior; Janis Perry, junior; and Sue Brooks and Jill Levinski, sophomores. Parents enjoyed informative programs dealing with teen-age problems.

Serving as officers of the Girls' League were Kate Riemer, president; Cynthia Holloman, vice-president; Marie Van Pelt, secretary; and Betsy Brigham, treasurer.

TONY FRENCH
Commissioner of Boys

BOYS' LEAGUE

The success of the Boys' League program this year has been attributed to the cooperation between the faculty advisers and the student committee chairmen, who have worked together to present the many programs and assemblies.

Highlighting the assembly programs that the Boys' League has witnessed this year was an exciting movie that featured the European Le Mans twenty-four hour road race, in which only thirty-eight cars finished out of the one hundred or more starting. An assembly on hot rods also proved to be very entertaining.

The Boys' League also enjoyed attending the various committee meetings, for the study of such vocations as architecture, automobiles, military service, skin and deep sea diving, world affairs, and radio, drama, and television, as well as other interesting groups.

The Icebreaker, sponsored jointly by the Boys' and Girls' League, was held this year at the South Pasadena Women's Club because of the unsafe condition of the girls' gym. This was an informal dance which helped new students to become better acquainted with South Pasadena High School. The dance on March 27, sponsored by the Boys' League, was a great success. In advertising the theme of the dance, Roadsters' Rendezvous, amusing assembly skits were offered.

At the head of the Boys' League this year was Tony French, who served as president; Dick Skaer aided Tony as vice-president. Secretary and treasurer were respectively Don Gentry and John Mott.

WELDON AWARD WINNERS

Weldon Fair Play Awards are given in recognition of outstanding sportsmanship and fair play exhibited in all school activities. The six senior winners of the awards, traditionally considered to be among the school's highest honors, are selected by a committee of twelve students and thirteen faculty members. Gold pins and certificates are presented to the winners, whose names are engraved on the Fair Play Cup.

CLASSES

"My high school days were the happiest days of my life!" How often teen-agers hear the echo of that statement—a statement with which Espee students are inclined to agree.

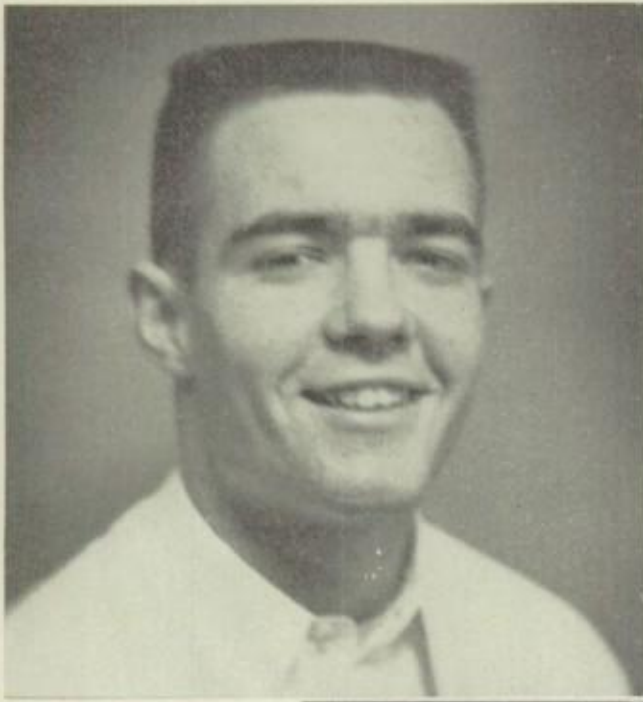

The Copa de Oro staff has endeavored to present the varying phases of activity at South Pasadena—those to which the class of '54 may some day look back and sigh, "My high school days were the happiest days of my life."

The class of '54 stands joyously bearing the fruit of three years' labor, while beneath them stands the class of '55, not big enough to fill the seniors' places, but eager and willing to try. At the bottom plays the baby class of '56.

Best of luck to a wonderful gal —
I hope you have all the fun you can get out of life —

White senior sweaters with blue numerals designed by Jim Gorton were the hallmark of the class of 1954. These sweaters were proudly displayed during assembly while the seniors marched down the aisle to their seats.

Led by Jim Roodhouse, who presided over all senior meetings; Brad Bishop, vice-president; Sue Patten, secretary; Bill Clark, treasurer; and Miss Esther Steele, class adviser, this year's seniors had an excellent scholastic achievement. Six students tied for first place in the class ratings, having a grade no lower than a "1" in their whole high school career. The class is very happy for Bob Parker, who received a scholarship to Annapolis.

The senior play, You Can't Take it With You, directed by Mr. Robert Tewksbury and Dave Hereford, was a riotous sensation.

Though the years may come and go, these seniors will never forget such outstanding events as the Senior Mothers Tea, Senior Breakfast, the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Glendale Civic, their prize winning Christmas booth, the receiving of announcements, and the great time they had on Ditch Day.

And, of course, all will remember the memorable Baccalaureate Services, the final Farewell Assembly, and the long awaited Graduation Ceremonies.

CLASS OF '54

PRESENTS

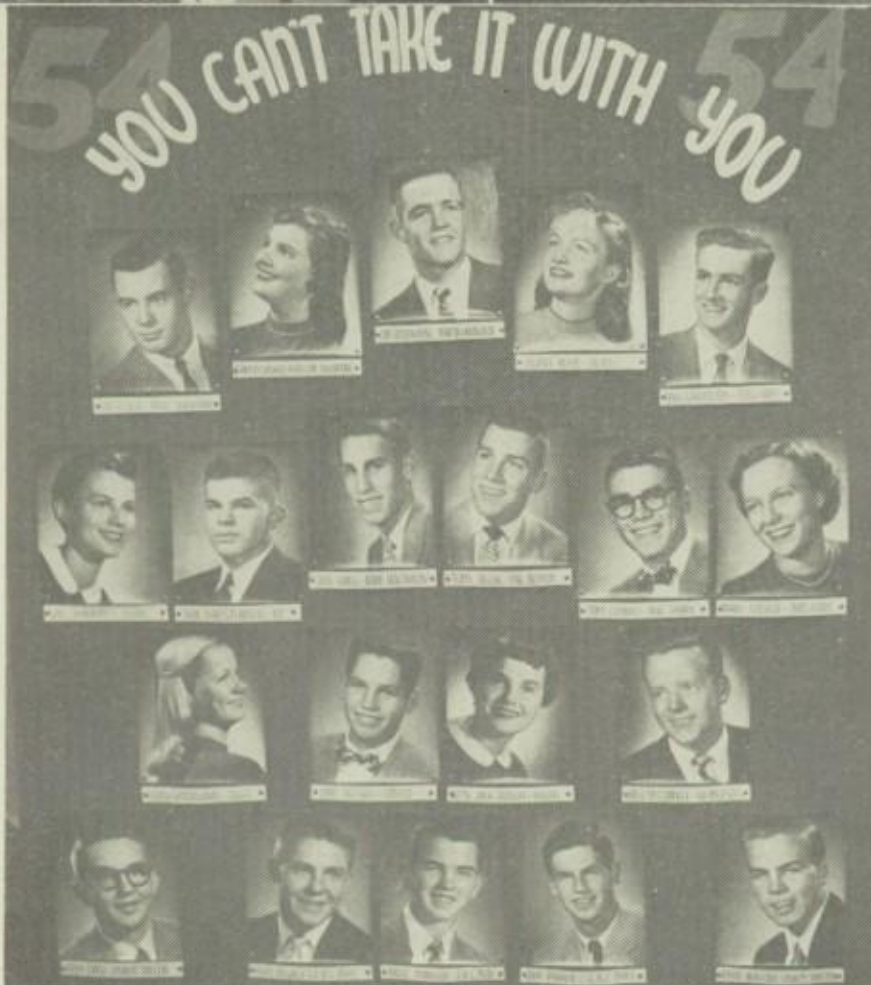

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

TOP RIGHT: Jim Roodhouse, Betty Jane Donlon, and John Kensey have a quiet talk over the entangled situation which has just arisen.

LOWER RIGHT: This unexpected situation proves to be one of the most hilarious scenes of the play.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Mel Weaver, Anne Prindle, and George Owsley apply the finishing touches on one of the stage panels, as Ann Mills, Mabel Davis, Carla Biszantz, and Joan Gentry complete the other stage preparations.

Jean McCloskey and Betsy Brigham apply make-up to Betty Jane Donlon just before the performance of the Senior Play.

KNEELING: Janie Beardsley, secretary; Art Danforth, treasurer. STANDING: Hal Altshuler, president; Jerry Wilson, vice-president.

CLASS OF '55

Coming up front from the back of the auditorium, the juniors look over the events of the past year and ahead to their final year at SPHS.

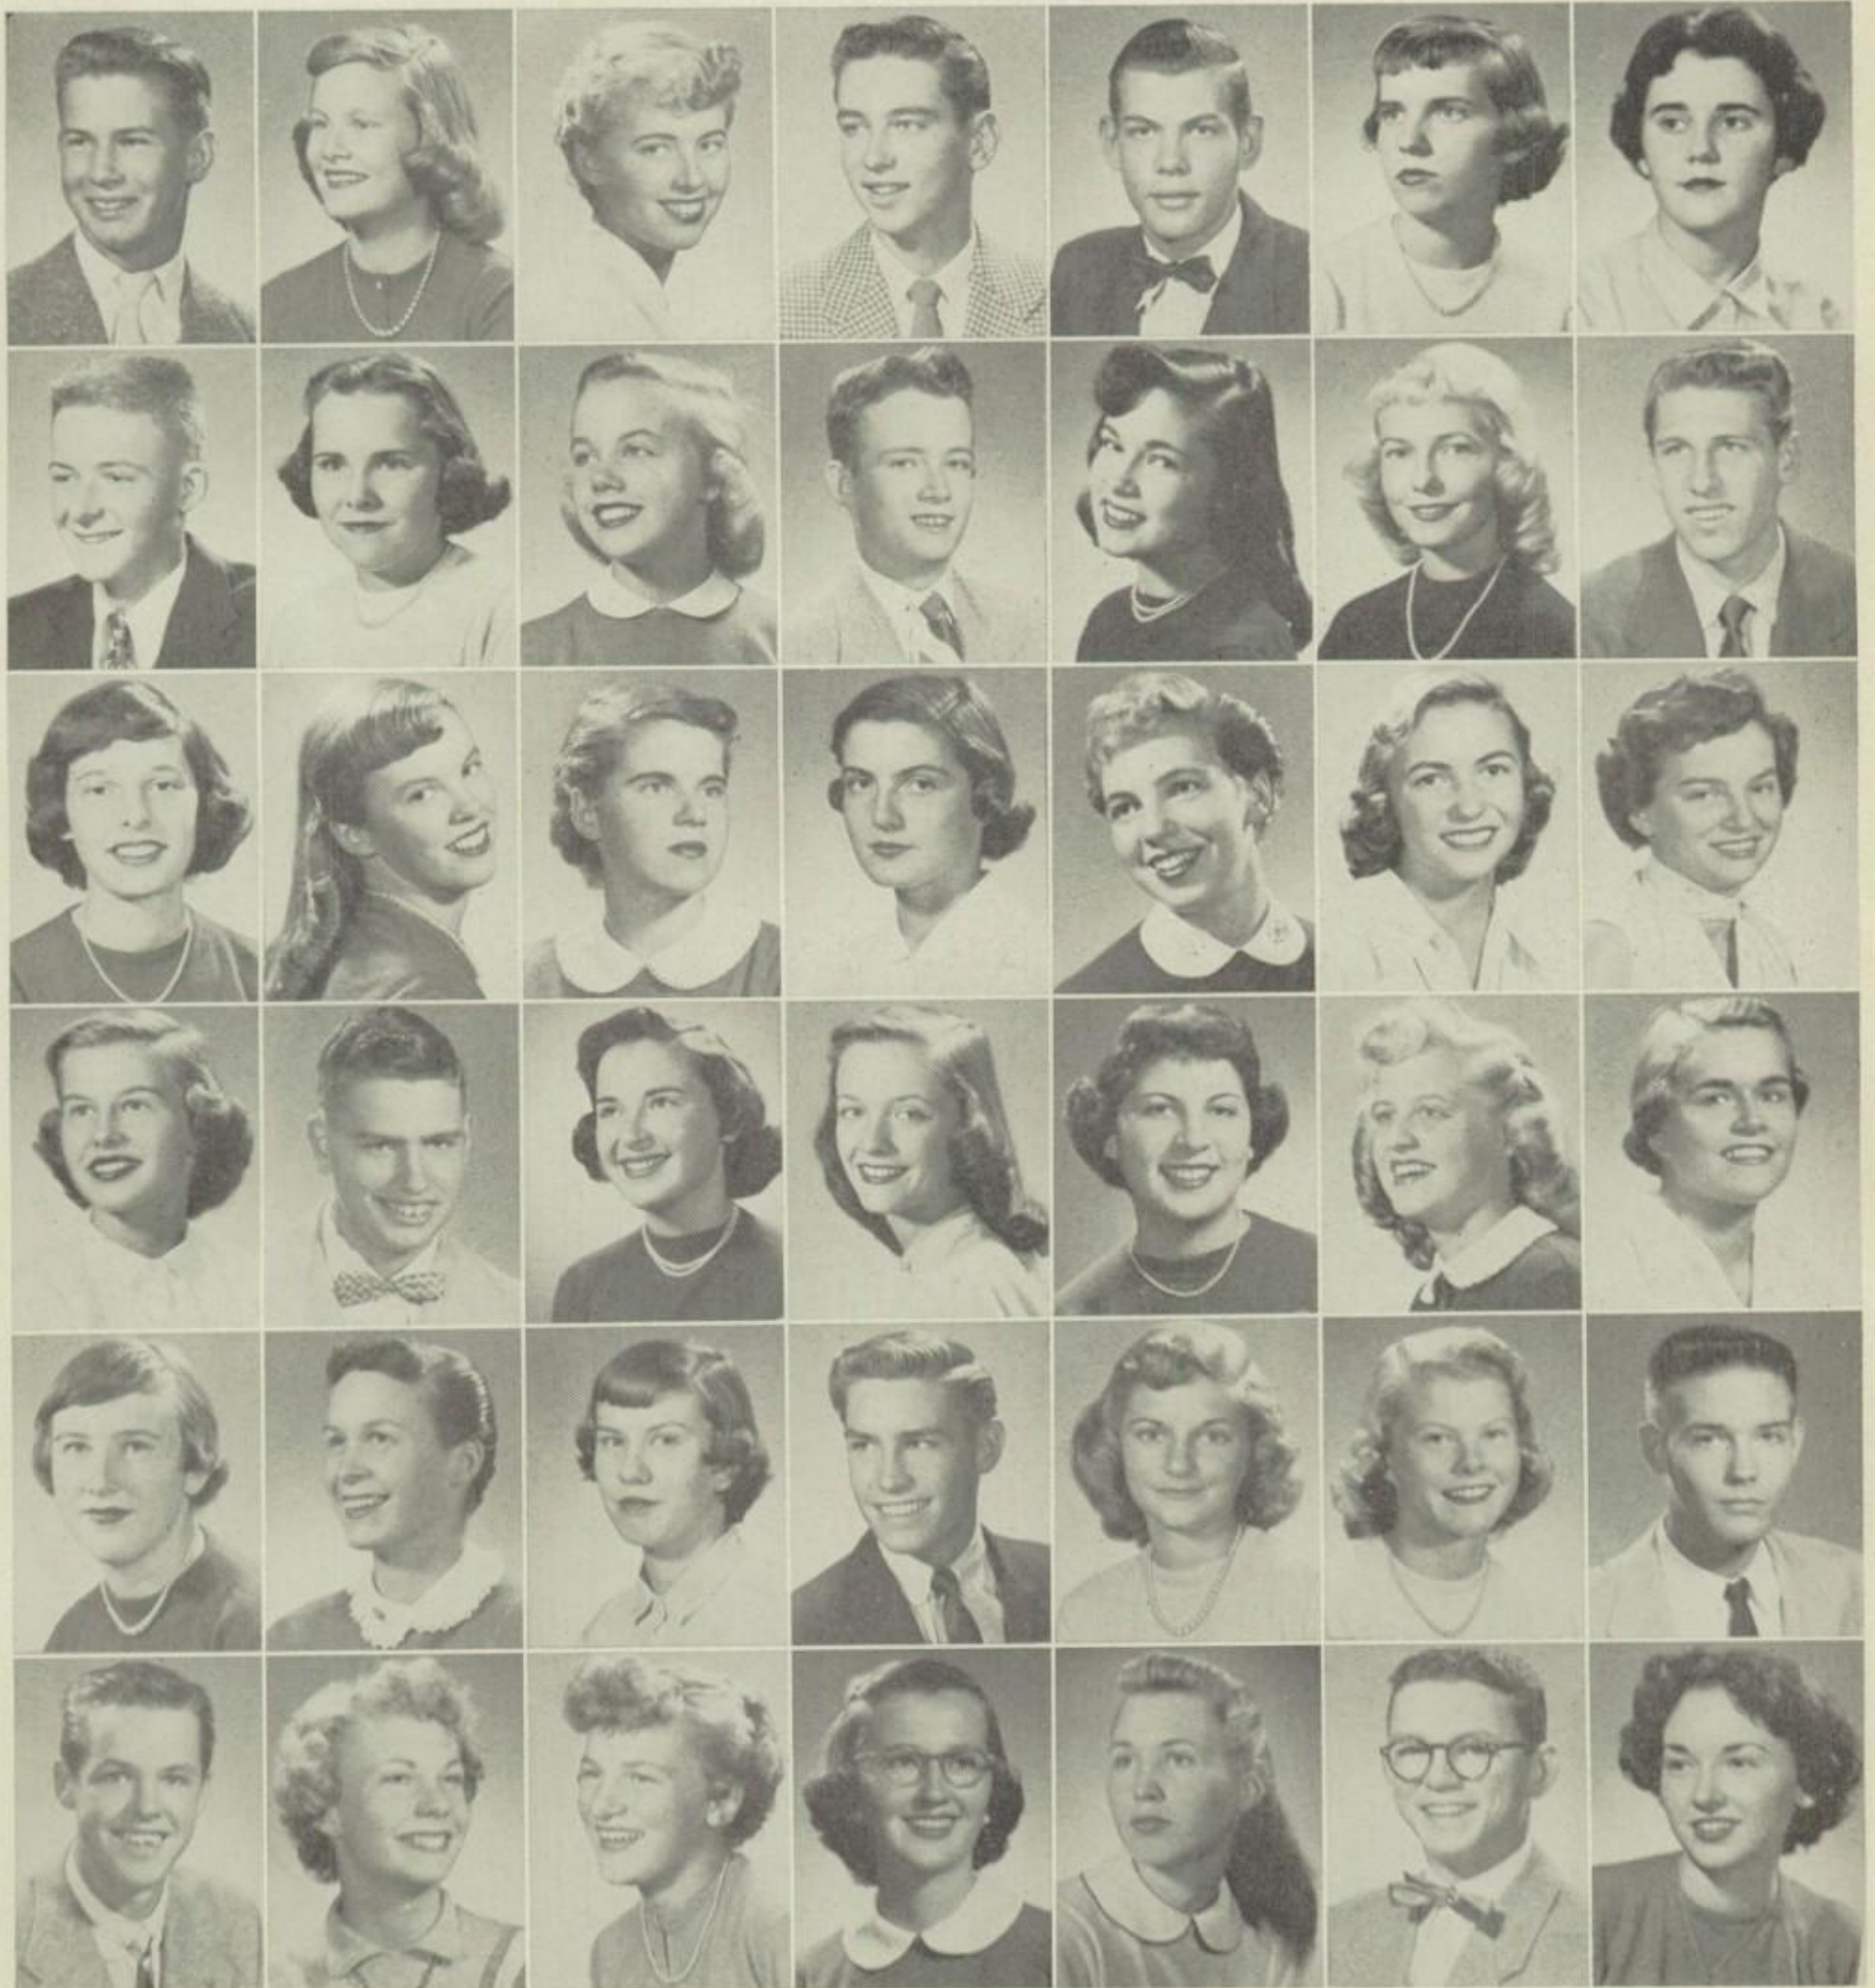

The Junior-Mothers' Tea, under the supervision of Miss Margaret Lauer and Janis Perry, junior representative to the Girls' League cabinet, featured a St. Patrick's Day theme. The juniors also presented the Prom, held at the Glendale Civic on May 22.

Other activities of the junior class included the Christmas booth and the election of commissioners in the early part of May. The class shattered a long-standing tradition by voting to have senior rings rather than sweaters. At graduation juniors girls wearing pastel dresses traditionally form the flower chain.

The junior class was under the able leadership of Hal Altshuler, president; Jerry Wilson, vice-president; Janie Beardsley, secretary; Art Danforth, treasurer; and Mrs. Elizabeth Berlot, class adviser.

ORGANIZATIONS

Extra-curricular activities are an important part of school life. Espee offers many opportunities for students to develop qualities of leadership and responsibility as officers and members of clubs and organizations which serve to cultivate interest in hobbies as well as classroom studies.

Foreign language and science clubs provide recreation and interesting programs related to their subjects. Music groups, art clubs, and athletic organizations offer chances to enjoy favorite pastimes, and scholarship organizations honor students whose academic standing makes eligible for membership. Espee is proud of its diversified program.

I dream
Though we didn't have a class

BENGALS

BENGAL OFFICERS: Larry Treuer, president; George Bole, vice-president; Diane Davis, secretary; Jim Wheeler, treasurer.

Mary Hammond, Mardythe O'Mara and Bob Cropp assist students with applications for Bengal membership.

Bengals is a service organization made up of juniors and seniors traditionally considered to be among the student-body's leaders. The Bengals act as ushers at assemblies, plays, open house night, football games, and other school functions. They provide information tables the first day of each semester to help incoming sophomores and others new to the school. They also act as guides at special teachers' institute sessions.

The Bengals sponsored a dance, held in the girls' gym on May 1, to raise funds for their treasury. This money goes toward buying pins and emblems for the incoming Bengals and for financing next year's dance.

Before many of the football games the Bengals held pot-luck dinners in order to become better acquainted with each other. In the spring they held an initiation picnic welcoming new members.

Bengals may easily be recognized around school in their navy blue sweaters with white emblems. The club's members are selected in the spring by a committee of Bengals on the basis of service to the school, citizenship record, and leadership ability. All sophomores and juniors are invited to apply by filing records of their school activities.

The Bengals worked this year under the fine leadership of Larry Treuer, president. George Bole served as vice-president; Diane Davis, secretary; and Jim Wheeler, treasurer. Miss Hester Lauman served as faculty adviser.

COPA DE ORO STAFF

NANCY EWING
Editor-in-Chief

MR. E. H. CROOK
Adviser

Meeting deadlines and composing well-balanced pages were only two of the problems which confronted the Copa Staff of '54.

Doing a terrific job as editor-in-chief this year was Nancy Ewing, who had the huge task of keeping things running smoothly. Dorothy Jackson, assistant editor, aided Nancy in organizing the staff members into one well-co-ordinated team.

Gloria Kovacevich, editor of organizations, was in charge of all school clubs and their activities. As editor of classes, Mary Andresen planned the photographing of sophomore class pictures and mounted junior and senior pictures. Judy Jones had her share of the headaches scheduling the junior and senior pictures, taken by Ernest Brooks, photographer. Campus activities, candid snapshots, and the senior index all came under the heading of the school life editor, Carol Moore. Credited with all the art in this year's Copa was Pat Henry. Her tiger kittens are found frolicking all through the pages of the Copa.

Wendell Mortimer edited boys' sports and worked with Jim Gorton and Dennis Lynch as photographer. On the financial side, Bob Christiansen headed the advertising department and was general business manager.

From the entire staff comes warm appreciation for the help that Mr. E. H. Crook, staff adviser and Miss Hester Lauman, art adviser, has given them. The staff members join in sincerely hoping you're happy with the results, your 1954 COPA!

TIGER STAFF

MR. E. H. CROOK
Adviser

NANCY GOWDY
Editor-in-Chief

Assigning stories, laying out pages, and reading proof made members of the Tiger staff a busy group during 1953-54.

Thursday during fourth period was the time when classes eagerly received the Tigers, the four-page publication which featured news stories, editorials, biographies, humor, and sports stories.

Nancy Gowdy led the staff as editor-in-chief. Jackie New and Mary Lou Jost served as first page editors; Judy Avery edited second page; Ginette Benson and Linda Fisher, commissioner of publicity, were in charge of third page; Mike Montgomery was sports editor. Mike Scofield acted as business manager, and Amber Oliphant ran the circulation department.

Mr. E. H. Crook was faculty adviser.

School events were recorded by Wendell Mortimer, Dennis Lynch and Jim Gorton, staff photographers. Jack Smith and Tom Graham, under the direction of Mr. Donald Phippin, saw that the Tiger was printed and ready on time.

Cub reporters learned the ropes this year by covering their assigned runs and fulfilling special assignments from the staff.

Quill and Scroll International Honorary Society for High School Journalists welcomed fifteen new members at a pot-luck supper given at Mike Scofield's home.

At USC on April 3, staff members had the opportunity to attend a panel discussion on the problems of running a paper and a yearbook.

PEP ASSOCIATION. FRONT ROW: Brown, Becker, Quillin, Creswell, Fopiano, Bennett, Gibson, Weis. SECOND ROW: Dominguez, Duke, Phillips, T. Clark, Gould, Whitcher, McManigal, J. Clark.

The tremendous spirit of South Pasadena is strengthened and maintained by the Pep Association. Led by Bill Duke and under the supervision of Miss Helen Graffen, the Pep Association organizes the rooting section and stunts at the football games, pep rallies, and Color Day. Under its direction the tradition of wearing white blouses to football games was initiated. This organization also arranges the activities of the song leaders, flag girls, Tigerettes, and majorettes. Much of the work of the Pep Association is concerned with half-time entertainment and activities.

Other members of the association include all the song leaders, yell leaders, the commissioners of activities and athletics, Joanie Becker and Ron Phillips; head majorette, Marlene Kramer; head Tigerette, Sylvia Gibson; band president, Tom Gould; and class representatives, Susie Creswell, Jim Clark, and King Kirk.

This year both the flag girls and the Tigerettes changed the style of their uniforms. The flag girls, headed by Betty Brown, made black denim jumpers with orange lining that were worn with white blouses. The Tigerettes, led by Sylvia Gibson, wore snappy white sailcloth skirts lined with orange and matching vests. White boots completed the outfit.

South Pasadena's enthusiastic spirit is known throughout the Southland, and it is because of the Pep Association's support that Espee has achieved this fame. This group, which has added a great deal of spirit to the school, is appreciated for its fine work.

CAMPUS COMMITTEES

Dave Ericson watches Cynthia Holloman and John Mott reach for a paper bag during their daily grading of the campus.

Campus committees, which were under the leadership of Dave Ericson, commissioner of interior, were in charge of the maintenance of a clean campus throughout the school year. An average rating of a "3" or better throughout the week was required for early dismissal on Fridays.

Dave was assisted in the grading of the condition of the campus at the close of lunch period each day by Cynthia Holloman and John Mott, Girls' and Boys' League vice-presidents and chairmen of the girls and boys' campus committees, respectively.

The combined committees were responsible for the painting of the refuse cans in the traditional orange and black colors, which was accomplished with the aid of the Girls' League cabinet. Boys of the committee offered their time for constructing new lunch benches to be used in the canteen area.

Last year's "three bell" cleanup system, used as a warning when low campus grades threatened, assembly ratings, and individual area assignments for committee members, all of which were instigated last year, were discontinued.

Espee's fifteen-minute brunch period was frequently omitted when the campus was found badly littered on the preceding day.

TRI-HI-Y

Pictured is one of the monthly meetings of the council which is made up of all officers of the Tri-Hi-Y.

Tri-Hi-Y serves to promote good citizenship and the maintenance of high standards of good Christian character among its members.

These ten service clubs have heard speakers on education, vocations, and travel and have visited radio and television shows, Olvera Street, El Poche, and China Town. The clubs have worked on service projects such as aiding in welfare work at El Calvario, making patchwork quilts, and working at the Children's Home in Pasadena.

Many of the members attended the model pre-legislative conference at Whittier College in October, and in February five went to Sacramento to the Youth and Government conference, where Diane Davis served as state chaplain.

This year the Tri-Hi-Y Council was under the leadership of Diane; Mrs. John Stallings and Mrs. Eaton Ballard served as advisers.

HI-Y

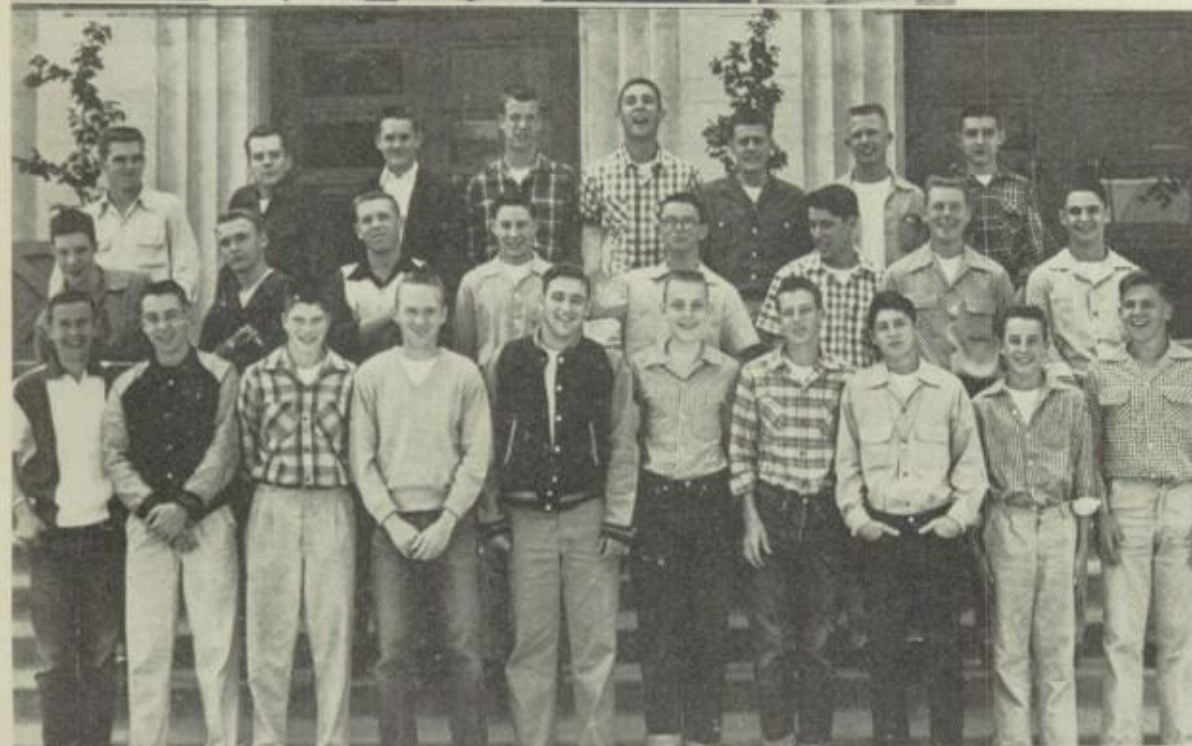

South Pasadena's chapter of the YMCA-sponsored Hi-Y has completed another successful year devoted to the principles of preparing young men for clean and Christian lives.

Led by Jim Roodhouse, senior, as their president, each of the three groups enjoyed interesting and informative meetings.

Senior Hi-Y has enjoyed such activities as hearing a doctor speak on the merits of his profession. They also sold football programs as their annual fund-raising project.

Members of the junior chapter spent much time doing welfare work at El Calvario. A car wash, another activity undertaken during the year, proved a big success.

Sophomores in Hi-Y enjoyed many good movies on such subjects as sports and cars.

Le Cercle Francais is in its 28th year of providing extra-curriculum activity for those French-language students who are interested not only in learning more about the people, customs and language of France, but also in contributing to the activities of the club.

The French Club is led this year by Mary Lou Jost, president; Barbara Brandt, vice-president; and Shirley Bachman and Dorothy Dodds, respectively secretary and treasurer. The group has enjoyed many good times together, attending a travelogue on France and viewing a motion picture providing educational values. On the social side, members held a Christmas gathering at Mary Lou Jost's house at Balboa, and a French potluck dinner, which featured the singing of such songs as the French national anthem, "Le Marseillaise," and other favorites, at the home of Barbara Brandt.

Anyone wishing to join must have earned a grade of at least a "2" in French and must have taken French for one semester.

Under the able sponsorship of Mrs. Elizabeth Berlot, Mr. David Flathers, and Mr. Albert Hauret, Le Cercle Francais enjoyed an immensely successful year.

SPANISH CLUB

OFFICERS. Miss Burr, Miss Tupica, advisers; Michi Ishikawa, vice-president; Mike Marr, treasurer; Barbara Huntington, secretary; Elisa Najera, president.

El Club Galdos, South Pasadena's Spanish Club, again spent another year filled with tortillas, castanets, pinatas, and plenty of fun. Led by the officers, Elisa Najera, president; Michi Ishikawa, vice-president; Barbara Huntington, secretary; and Mike Marr, treasurer, the entire membership spent many happy hours together.

There were the times they increased their knowledge of the Spanish-speaking countries by seeing movies on Guatemala and Central America. A Mrs. Hotchkiss showed wonderful slides taken during her extensive travels through Spain.

The afternoon meetings were heightened by professional talent as well as by programs emanating from the members.

This home talent included Spanish rhythms and melodies played by some musical members.

With the coming of the Christmas season the members held their annual Spanish banquet at the Oneonta Congregational Church in South Pasadena. The banquet, including such Spanish delicacies as tacos, enchilladas and tortillas, was enjoyed by all. And then there was the traditional, brightly colored pinata to be broken open, showering everyone with candy and nuts! After the fun such old favorite Christmas carols as "Noche de Paz, Noche de Amour" could be heard floating on the air.

El Club Galdos had as its advisers Miss Nadia Tupica and Miss Helen Burr, Spanish teachers.

LATIN CLUB

Espee's Comes Club endeavors to stimulate interest in Latin as well as give new light in Roman life and history. Periodical meetings are held to raise scholarship funds, conduct business and provide additional social activities. Second, third and fourth-year students are eligible to join this organization.

At initiation incoming members walked down the aisles of the auditorium singing "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star" in Latin. Officers elected for the year were Joan Ukropina, president; Barbara Meeker, vice-president; Trudy Garmshausen, secretary; and Jim Barry, treasurer. Mr. David C. Flathers, a new Latin instructor at this high school, advised the group.

Carols were sung in Latin at a Christmas party at which small gifts were exchanged and refreshments served. Shortly after the first of the year new members received their club pins. Guards were donated by the club to the four officers. Viewing the Cinemascope production of The Robe was one of the year's many highlights. "Dragnet the Roman Way," a short play written by Judy Keefe, was presented in the Hello Day assembly.

The annual Roman banquet, to which members were not admitted unless barefooted and clad in togas, highlighted the activities of the year. The Roman dinner, planned by Annette Weis, Sandy MacCallum, Donna Bergstrom, and Sue Morgan, was served after members enjoyed a swim. Advanced students reclined to eat as the second year students served as slaves. The party, at which prizes were awarded for the most original togas, ended a year bringing eventful and enjoyable meetings for the club members.

Dennis Lynch, Bob Christiansen and Doug McDermott are rehearsing a scene from "Mr. Roberts," produced for one of the club's meetings.

Cloak and Dagger is a must on every student's club list if he enjoys acting, directing, study of make-up, and the many other things connected with good theatre.

The first activity to go on the rehearsal schedule was the annual Christmas play, presented in connection with the modern dance group and glee club. Students who wished to act and work on make-up were given chances to "ply their trades."

Regular meetings of "the thespians" have included talent shows put on by members themselves. Given at one meeting were scenes from the stage play, Mr. Roberts.

Arsenic and Old Lace, by now practically a theatre classic, was one of the plays seen on frequent club trips to the Pasadena Playhouse.

Guiding a record membership this year was head director, Dennis Lynch. Aiding Dennis were Bronson Berlin, vice-president; Nancy Ewing, secretary; and Cecily Woodward, treasurer. Mr. Robert Tewksbury was faculty adviser for the group.

MEMBERS. FRONT ROW: Donnell, Fyfe, Amadooni, Henry, McNiesh, MacCallum, Ferda, LaFreniere, Nye, Marble, Atwill. The Sophomore Art Club has participated in many interesting activities and meetings during this past year. A sketching party in the Arroyo Seco and a weiner roast at Mrs. Roma Anderson's art studio proved to be much fun.

Mr. John Krause of John Muir College presented an interesting talk about old paintings and pottery to a joint meeting of the Sophomore and Junior-Senior Art Clubs.

Games and refreshments highlighted the successful Valentine party held in Mrs. Anderson's ceramics room.

Under the leadership of Mike Lanham, president; Kay Hughes, vice-president; Susan Hartzell, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Roma Anderson, adviser, the meetings and activities were enjoyed by all.

The Junior-Senior Art Club has enjoyed a successful year with its aim to give art students added experiences not adapted to the classroom. Meetings featured sketching trips, Mrs. Mary Pulliam, who spoke on the technique of flower arranging, and a Christmas party in Miss Hester Lauman's home.

A major project, raising funds for the annual $100 scholarship awarded in June, was headed by Joan McAvoy, scholarship chairman. Over the holiday season club members sold cards and Christmas decorations which they had designed and painted.

Heading the art group were Joanie Swanson, president; Judy Flodin, social director, and Carol Cauthen, program director, vice-presidents; Mary Jo McAllister, secretary; and Barbara Freitag, treasurer. Adviser was Miss Hester Lauman.

TIGER EYES

OFFICERS. FRONT ROW: Mary Gould, secretary; Mary Lou Jost, program chairman. SECOND ROW: Andy Rawn, treasurer; Mike Thacker, president.

To give students who are interested in the world about them an opportunity to become better acquainted with nature is the main purpose of Tiger Eyes. This biology club, under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Jo Sowards, has enjoyed the past year by taking trips to various places of interest in and around Southern California. An overnight beach party at the home of Mary Gould in Balboa and a trip to Catalina in the spring were two of the highlights among their activities.

Several parties were held, beginning in the fall with the initiation of new members, who performed stunts to add to the merrymaking. A Christmas party which featured relay races and balloon-popping was held at the home of Cynthia Peterson. An ice-skating party at the Pasadena Winter Garden in February proved to be a popular activity. Those who attended adjourned to Paul Hauge's home for refreshments afterward. An educational meeting providing information about the Sierra Nevada Mountains was also a part of the club's program for 1953-54. The seniors of the club held a graduation dinner in June.

A trip to Dinosaur National Monument is planned for the week following close of school. About fifteen students from the biology classes are scheduled to accompany Miss Sowards on a week's journey down the Green River in rubber rafts.

Membership in the club is restricted to students who earned "2" or better in biology. Selections to fill the limited membership are made from applications submitted by interested students.

Tiger Eyes was led by Mike Thacker, president; Mary Gould, vice-president; and Andy Rawn, treasurer.

One of the most eventful and educational years in the history of the Cimota Club was enjoyed in 1953-54 under the enthusiastic leadership of Mr. Robert Fellman, adviser; Paul McManigal, first semester president; and John Kensey, president for the second semester.

Because of the change of officers and the induction of new members during both terms, two initiations were held—one at the home of Ewing Delphey and the second at Paul McManigal's.

Regular meetings offered new information and ideas to members, who must have earned a "2" or better in chemistry or physics to be eligible to join. A rocket fuel demonstration by a Cimota Club member, Harold Couch, highlighted one of the educational gatherings. A speaker from Aero-Jet brought special movies on a one-man submarine to another meeting. Early in the school year the members enjoyed a pot-luck dinner, which was preceded by a talk on smog. The annual trip through the Kaiser Steel Mill in Fontana was taken. In April Peter Harrison acted as chairman of the science fair, which is annually sponsored by the Cimota Club. Science students entered projects in biology, physics, and chemistry divisions. Winning entries were submitted to the Los Angeles County Science Fair for further competition. An exciting year was climaxed with a swimming party and dinner.

Officers who served under Paul McManigal were George Bole and Carole Doyle, boys' and girls' vice-presidents; Mary Locher, secretary; and Ken Ishizu, treasurer. Working under John Kensey during the second semester were Margo Lovendale and Harold Couch, girls' and boys' vice-presidents; Carol Doyle, secretary; and Wendell Mortimer, treasurer.

MODERN DANCE

The modern dance department, under the direction of Mrs. Marietta Schick, has become a very definite part of the girls' physical education department.

The members have participated in a Play Day program at Monrovia High School, a Christmas program, and the annual Spring Show.

Modern dance is healthful as well as artistic. It is in accord with our contemporary way of living; modern dance strives to interpret everyday expression through rhythmical movement.

Offered to girls in physical education classes on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, modern dance develops poise, confidence, and instills rhythm and co-ordination.

The Gourmets, composed of girls from cooking and sewing classes, was led this year by Dixie Donnell, president; Janet Hibbard, vice-president; Helene Anderson, secretary; and Pam Parsons, treasurer. In October a swimming party and pot-luck supper was held at Mary Gould's home, and in December a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Annabelle Erickson, adviser. In January an enjoyable talk was given by a speaker for the Red Cross. The last meeting, held in May at Mrs. Erickson's home, brought an end to a highly successful year.

Working together toward a common goal is the surest way of forming deep, lasting friendships. For this reason athletics is a valuable teacher of sportsmanship and of understanding of others. South Pasadena is as proud of each of the fine players on the teams as of the outstanding record of winning scores they have brought to the school. The Copa de Oro salutes the players and the student body, whose cheers and enthusiasm have kept the teams on top.

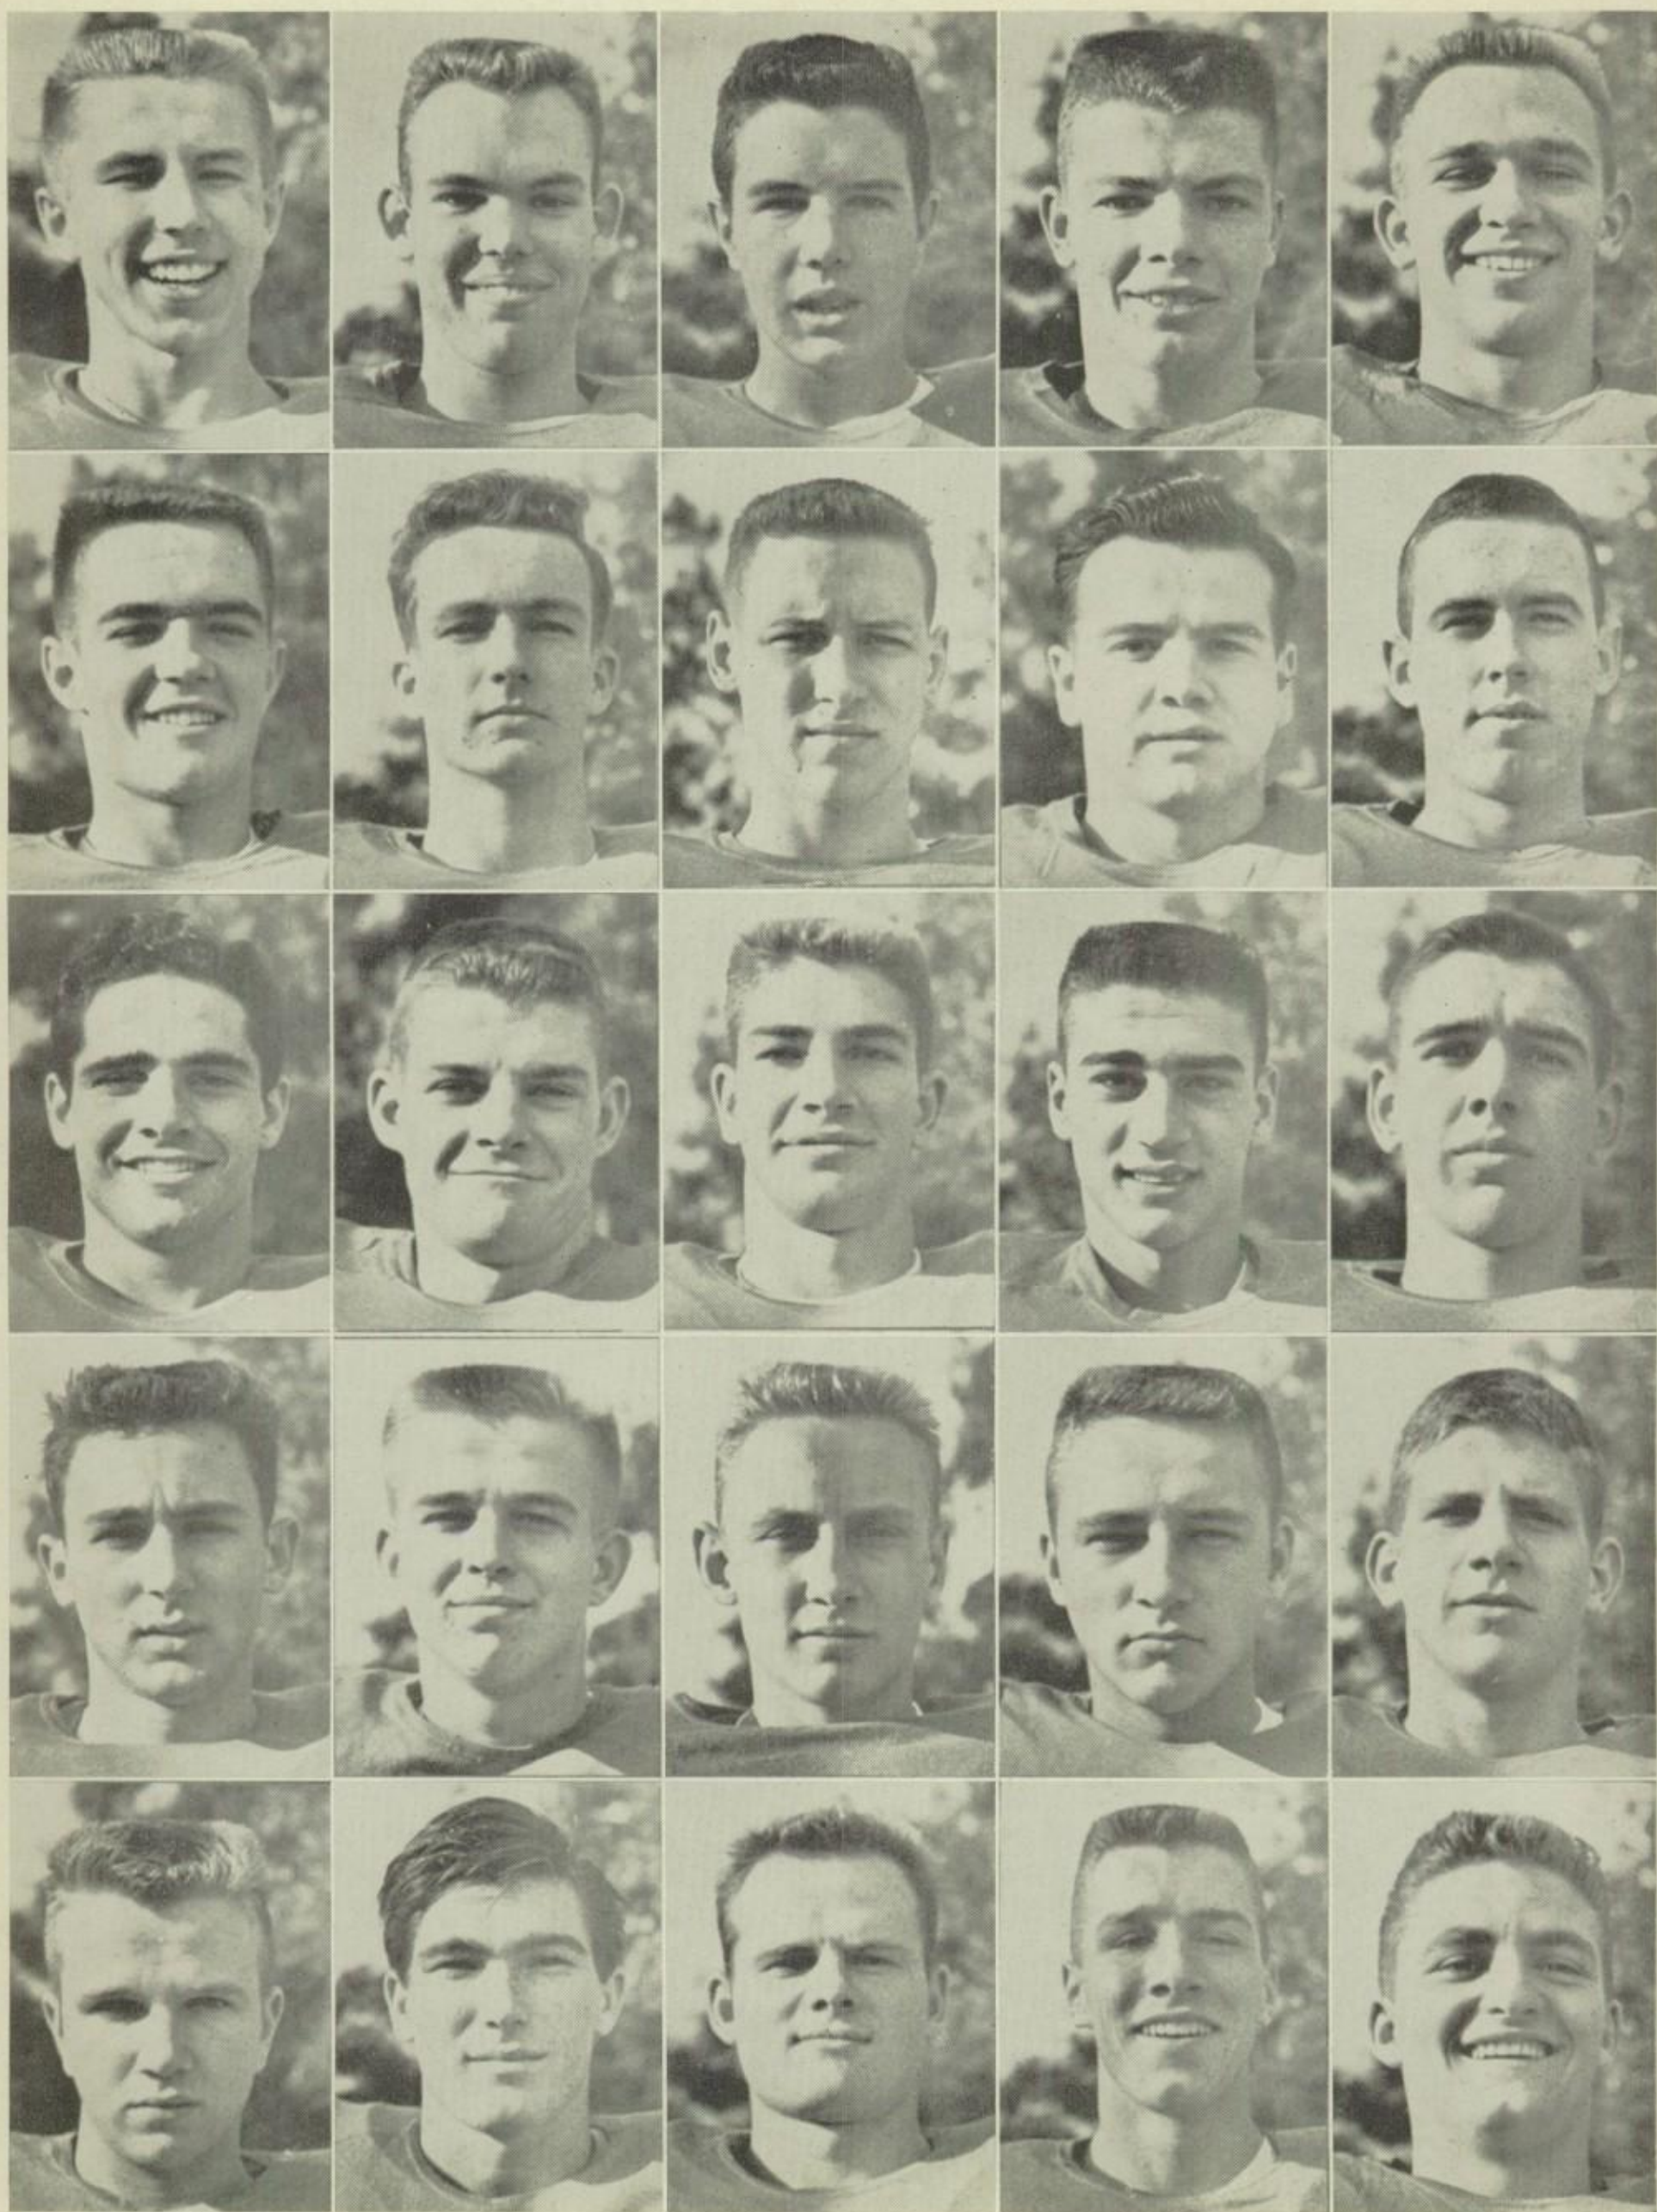

When you are at the well here we are at the close of another year. Just think next year at this time we will be graduates. I can hardly wait. Good luck to all. Love, Mary.

Darren,

The Bulldogs from Burbank failed to score as Espee's Squad racked up 13 points in their fourth league tilt. Kevin Elliott fell on a blocked Burbank punt to put the Tigers out in front by 6. The second tally came when Gary Hill took a Ukropina pass for 35 yards to score for the Eacuttmen.

as S. P.'s Dave "Footsie" Carrington punted six times with a 53-yard punt average.

In the league finale, Montebello scored on the first play of the game with only 10 South Pas defenders on the field. From that time on, the Tigers outplayed the visiting Oilers, by getting 5 first downs to Montebello's 0, but the score stood: Montebello 7, Tigers 0.

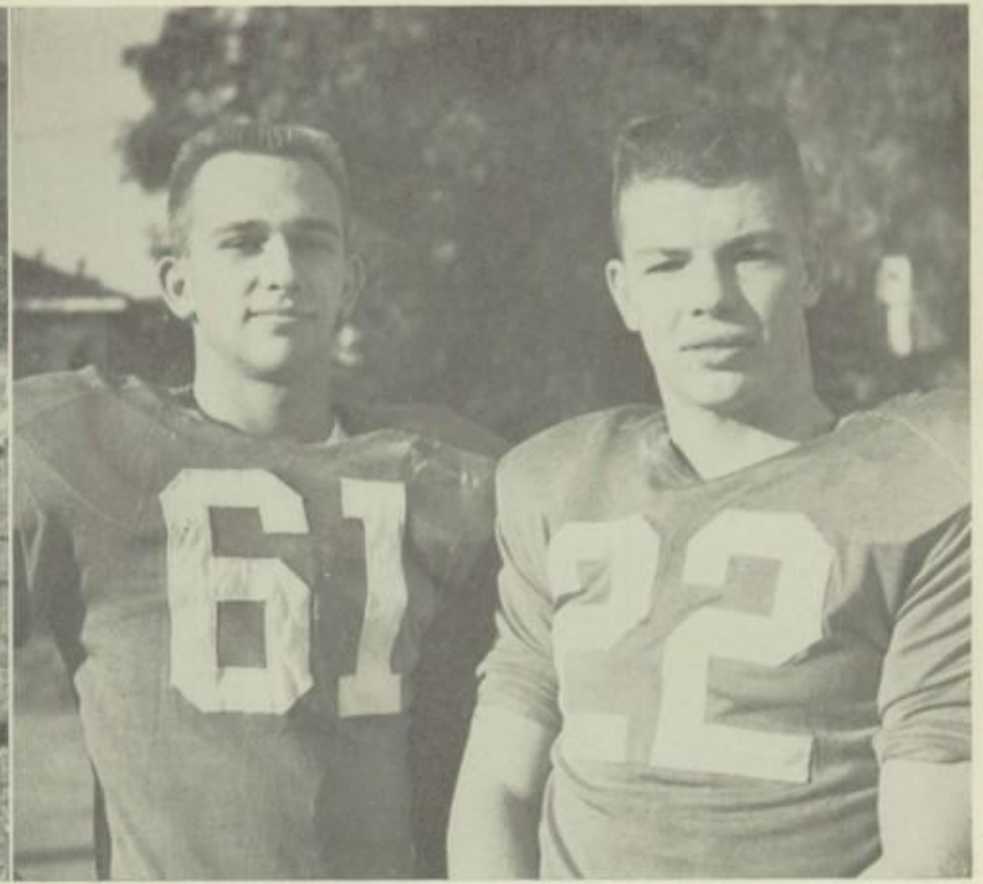

Ron Currie tangles with a Glendale man in the first game of league competition. South Pas came out on the bottom of a 7-0 score.

Tony French shakes off two would-be tacklers before racing 79 yards for a T.D. The Bengals lost this, the last practice tilt, 19-7.

Coach Chuck Hannah's midget Tigers showed great improvement over last year, averaging 14.5 points per league tilt. Hard-hitting John Fopiano was a great ball-handler for the Tigerkits. In the Fullerton practice game, John took the pigskin on the first scrimmage play of the game for 70 yards and a touchdown.

Sophomore Ted Settle looked very promising in the quarterback spot with Dave Hyland, a junior, out on the end to receive. Another sophomore, Brad Thurman, punted very well for the Hannahmen.

Among the many outstanding Bee footballers were Tom Clark, Jim Dougherty, Taylor Story, Bruce Ungles, Pete Westerlind and Bob Whitcher.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach C. Merrill Green produced some truly great basketballers during the 1954 season, but because of injuries and sickness, ended the season in a tie for second place. Espee's coin-flipping luck came to an end as Hoover went into the finals along with the league winner, Covina. The Greenmen averaged 54 points a game in league competition while their opponents averaged 46 points per tilt. A school scoring record was broken in Montebello when the Tigers scored 80 points.

Ron Wheatcroft, although suffering from an ankle injury, was voted the Tiger's most valuable player and named to the first string All-C.I.F. Basketball squad. Big Ron (6 ft. 3 in., 200 lbs.) placed second in league scoring with 181 points in 10 league games and was also elected to the first-string All-Foothill League team. "Wheaties" also broke an Espee record by scoring 37 points in the tilt against Montebello.

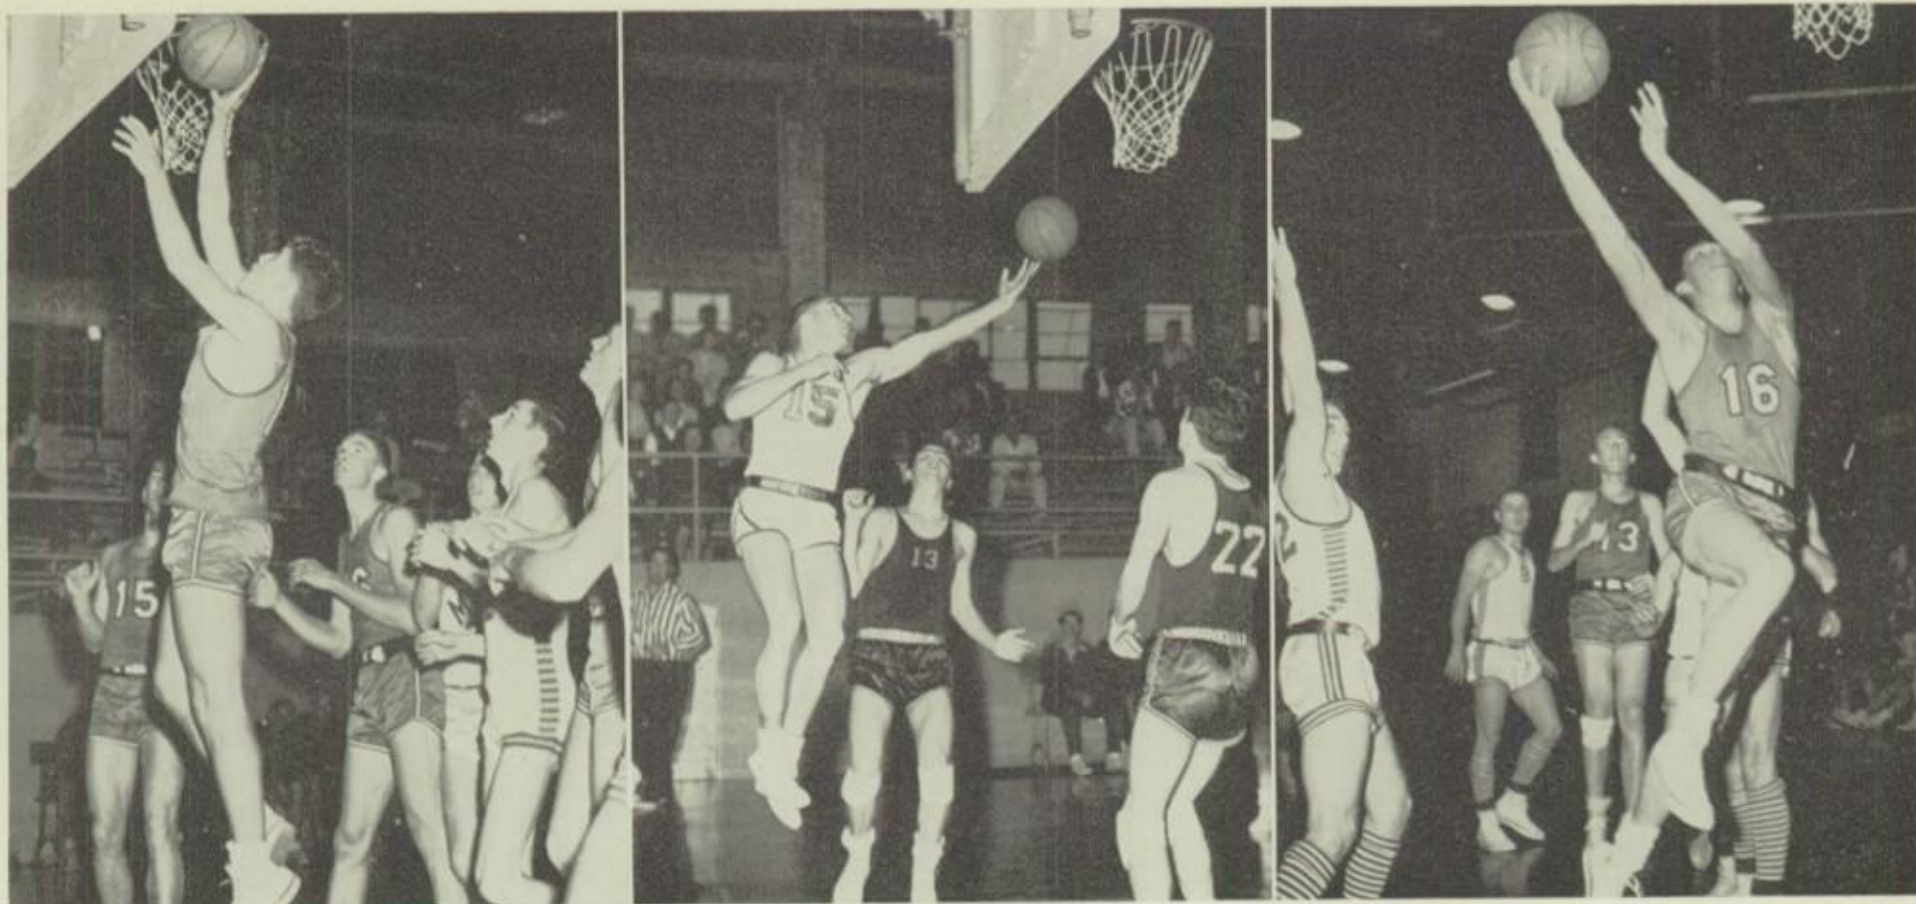

Dick Skaer, big 6 ft. 6 in. center, ranked seventh in league scoring by sinking 140 points in 12 games. He was named on the Second All-League team along with the Tigers' captain, Don Gentry. Tom Gould, 6 ft. 5 in. guard, was given All-League Honorable Mention.

Coach Jim Faul's Tigercubs had a very slow season, winning one out of the twelve league tilts, their league victory being over Covina, 41-37.

John Fopiano sparked the team by scoring 16 points against Burbank and 19 against Montebello. Bill Archer came through for the Tigerkittens by scoring 18 points in the Glendale contest.

Brad Thurman, who came up from Coach Hannah's Cees, led Espee to their victory over Covina. Bob Whitcher, Fred Byers and Jim Dougherty came through for the kittens when called upon. Junior Bill Colgrove looked like good material for next year's varsity squad.

Fopiano was named on the All-League Bee basketball squad while Bill Archer and Ron Bauer were given honorable mention.

Although Coach Eacutt's varsity spikers won only one league meet, that being over Covina 59-48, there were many outstanding individuals performing for the Tiger thinclads.

Among the outstanding varsity men were King Kirk in the hurdles, Dick Skaer in the high jump and 220, Ron Phillips in the shot put, and Dick Stoltz in the mile and 880.

Bee spikers included some of the best in Espee's history. The 660-relay team of Dave Hyland, Bill Ducette, Gordy Bisset and John Fopiano broke the school record for this event a half-dozen times and tied the Foothill League record of 1:08.2. Other outstanding Bee performances included Bill Ducett's 10.2 century, Tom Clark's 49 ft. 2 1/2 in. put, Bob Michael's 11 ft. vault, Al Culver's 5 ft. 8 in. jump, and Dave Hyland's 1:27.2 660-yard run.

Cee's Mike Lanham, Chester Pyle, Brad Thurman and Jack Hartman looked like good prospects for the next season.

JAY-VEE BASEBALL

Tiger Jay-Vee Baseballers, coached by Bob Tewksbury, wound up the season with more wins than losses in a better than average season. Many of the 21 players who helped the J.V.'s during the course of the season looked like very good varsity prospects for the future.

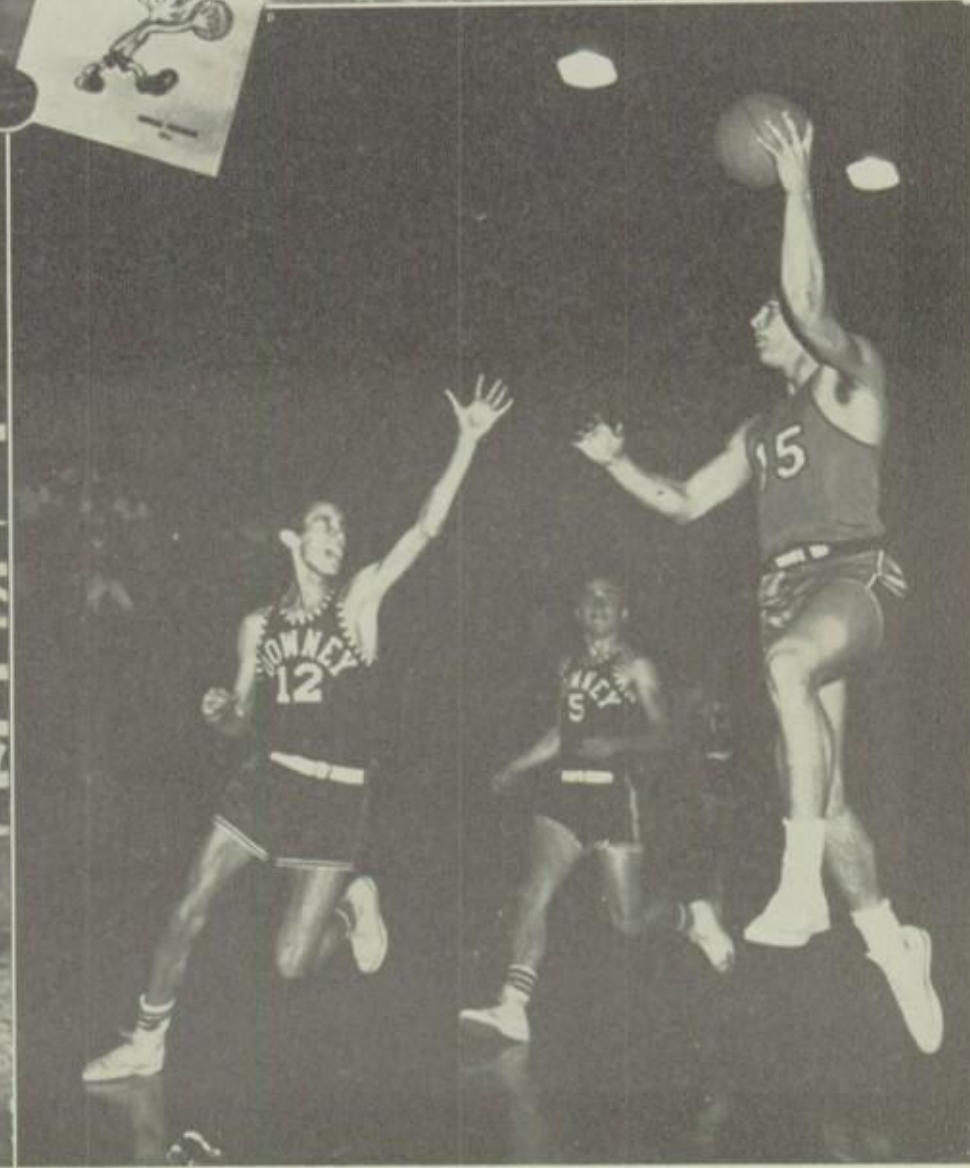

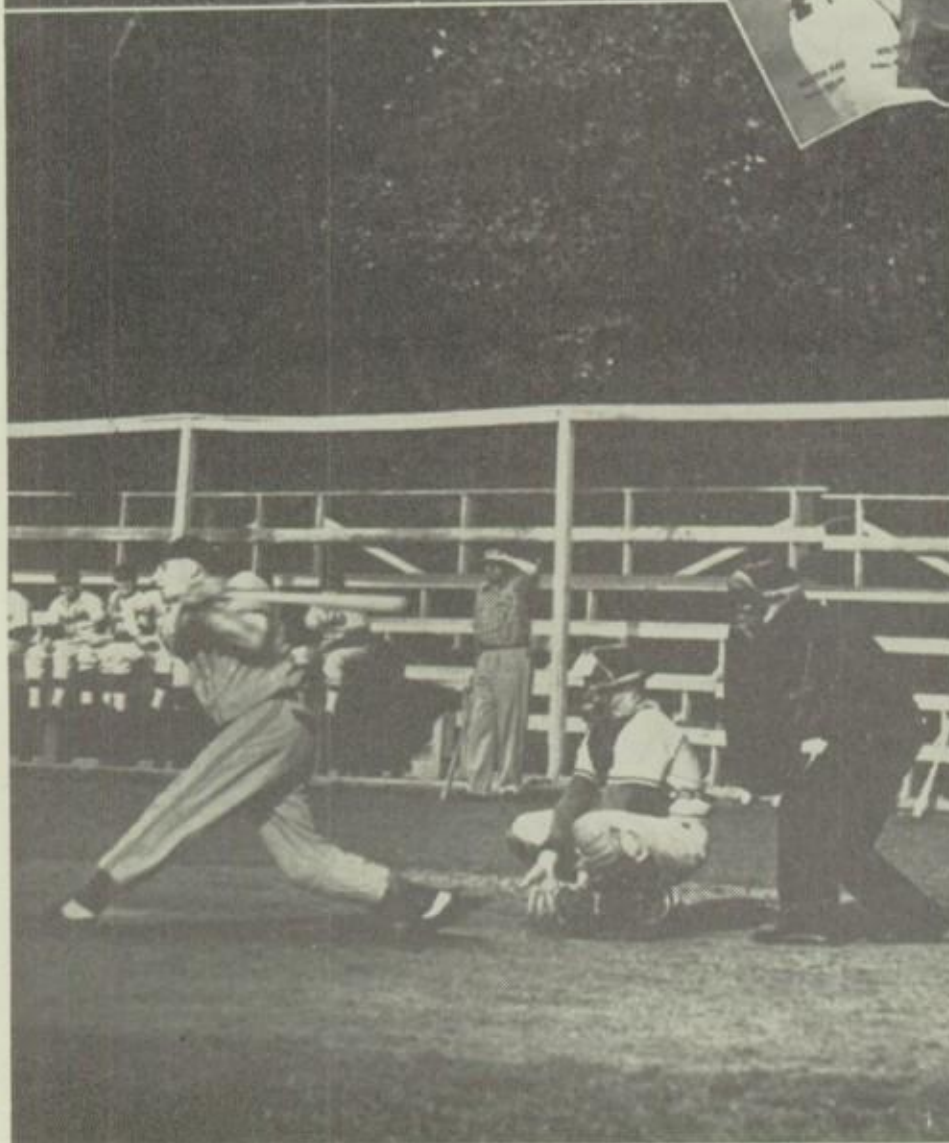

Jay-Vee hurdler, Phil Carlson, will be pitching from the mound for Espee for the next two years. One of the Jay-Vee's outstanding fetes was that of conquering San Marino's "Titans" by a score of 4-1, Carlson pitching a no-hitter.

Outstanding seniors on the squad included Tom Alderman and Paul McManigal and, among those returning next year will be Fred Marshall, John Hambric, John Kaplan, Don Goffinet, and Dave Rapp.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Miss Vivian Atherton and Miss Helen Graffen supervise a basketball game during 6th period.

Girls' physical education classes this year have enjoyed many sports under the direction of gym instructors, Miss Vivian Atherton and Miss Helen Graffen.

Volleyball, basketball, speed-a-way, hockey, and soft-ball have been the regular activities, supplemented by badminton and tennis. As an added feature this year, a three weeks' golf instruction course was given by Coach Charles Hannah for both boys and girls who were interested.

Two playdays were featured among the G.A.A. activities—one given at South Pasadena and one at Mark Keppel. Although limited facilities made it difficult for the G.A.A. to offer as many sports as it would have liked, girls did enjoy volleyball, speed-away, tennis, badminton, and table tennis. The banquet at the end of the year brought an exciting climax to a very active G.A.A. season.

Volleyball starts the Girls' sports season in September followed by Speed-away in November.

Basketball follows the Speed-away season. Gretchen Ballard tosses up the ball between Diane C. Davis and Judy Jones as the other members of the team attempt to get the ball.

Diane Young and Sharon Malone attempt to guard the ball during an exciting game of hockey as Margaret von Essen and Gretchen Ballard try to make a goal.

Judy Mouron begins her golf lesson by teeing off with the ball as Judy Jones and Ann Frank await their turns. A three weeks' course in golf was given by Coach Charles Hannah.

School life is much broader than a stately horizon of classrooms and report cards. Espee's Tigers not only attend school dances but also organize and present them as group functions. They enjoy both educational and entertaining assemblies each Friday, many of which originate with the student body. The hours spent off campus—at the beach, in the mountains, in the desert—are hours to be shared with friends at school.

These, then, are high school days, presented and preserved as fully and accurately as possible. It is quite probable that Timothy and Tabatha Tiger just might look back and say, "My high school days were the happiest days of my life."

Without the wholehearted co-operation and support of a great number of students and friends of the school, the 1954 COPA DE ORO could not have become a reality. Members of the COPA DE ORO staff wish to express their sincere appreciation especially to:

Mr. T. J. Hosinski of the Acme Engraving Company, who travelled from Los Angeles so many times to advise us. Without him we would have been lost a thousand times.

Pat Henry, who created the lovable Tiger cubs which frolic on the division pages and cover of the COPA. Thanks also to Jo McAllister, who aided in the art department by doing the lettering which appears on the cover and title page, and Miss Hester Lauman, who guided Pat and Jo in the art work.

Mr. E. H. Crook, our own adviser, who so patiently guided us as we faced each crisis and, by his steady leadership, kept us from going astray.

Mr. Ernest H. Brooks, whose magnificent work is displayed in the pictures of administrators, counselors, juniors, seniors, and the Football Queen and Princesses.

Mr. Harry Wood of Wayside Press, who patiently put up with our last-minute rush.

The S. K. Smith Company, which is responsible for the beautiful cover on the 1954 COPA DE ORO.

The many COPA salesmen, whose efforts made the book a success.

The faculty, who co-operated so understandingly when classes were disrupted for the taking of pictures.

The TIGER staff, which gave us so much wonderful publicity on the COPA sales.

Thanks also to the many, many others who gave their time in our behalf. Because of their efforts, we hope, the 1954 COPA DE ORO will be long remembered.

With sincerest appreciation,

NANCY EWING, Editor-in-Chief.
